

Assessors with a conflict of interest should absent themselves from all discussion of the application relating to that conflict of interest. They should not provide any additional information/background/context etc. and let the application speak for itself.

All assessors must declare that they will treat information they have access to through the assessment process confidentially.

DRAFT