Displaying submissions online

The Committee does not propose to display your full submission on a website unless this is necessary, and you have given your consent. However, your name and other personal information may be published on the internet as detailed below.

Publication of your personal information on the internet

A Committee Report will be published on the internet and may include each submitter's name, direct quotes from submissions and submitter addresses, if required. It will not directly identify a submitter with their residential address. Please note that even when your personal information is removed from the internet, it may remain on external servers indefinitely.

Hearing of submissions

A Hearing may be held in person at a venue, by telephone conference, by video link, or a combination of these. You should be aware the Committee may:

- broadcast submissions and proceedings live on the internet
- record submissions and proceedings
- make the recording available to submitters and parties to the Hearing and third parties who request it from Planning Panels Victoria at planning.panels@delwp.vic.gov.au
- use your phone contact details to contact you during a telephone/video hearing, if necessary.

The Committee will direct that parties:

- use any recording provided by Planning Panels Victoria solely for the purpose of the Committee process
- not record online hearings.

The Committee cannot:

- guarantee that a third party will not produce an unauthorised recording
- regulate how recordings are used outside the hearing context.

After the Committee has reported

When the Committee has reported to the Minister for Planning, your submission will be removed from public display.

Your original submission and any additional material provided will be held at Planning Panels Victoria for two years and then sent to the Public Record Office Victoria. All additional copies of the submission and other material held by Planning Panels Victoria will be securely destroyed.

If you have any concerns about how your submission will be used, please contact Planning Panels Victoria on (03) 8624 3127.
