Activity Centre for Seniors

What is Willowview?

Willowview is a community facility operated by Yarra City Council, offering services for older people, people with disabilities and their carers, living in the City of Yarra.

The Centre provides a friendly and supportive environment where people can socialise and participate in a range of activities. The Centre is comfortable, full of natural light, with a beautiful garden and a shaded courtyard.

Willowview staff are experienced and enthusiastic, and provide an enjoyable and supportive program. Staff can speak a range of different languages and have a variety of qualifications and expertise in aged care.

Willowview offers a range of activities including:

- A three-course lunch
- Daily exercise
- Trips and outings
- Arts and crafts
- Board games, cards and bingo
- Guest speakers and information
- Special events celebrations
- Gardening
- Yoga
- Internet access and instruction
- Programs with local school children
- Entertainment and movies
- Conversation and discussions

The Centre also offers:

- A multicultural program
- Greek-speaking and Italian-speaking groups
- Introduction to other Council services including libraries, leisure centres and more

Who can attend?

- Older residents living in the City of Yarra
- People with limited opportunities to participate in regular community activities
- People who have health issues and limited mobility, and who require support
- People who have some memory loss
- People whose carers need time to relax

Who can refer?

Aged Care Assessment Services (ACAS), General Practitioners, case managers, family members and individuals can make referrals to the service.

All referrals come through My Aged Care (MAC) on 1800 200 422
